

Nottingham Girls' Academy Provision for SMSC and British Values

Faculty: Sociology and Psychology	British Values	Social	Moral	Spiritual	Cultural
Year 10 and 11	Tolerance of varying types of families and cultural diversity linked in with social constructionism Crime and deviance unit - the importance of the law making process in terms of socialisation, social control and justice	Community lives - globalisation and variation of family living styles Peer group interactions and the development of identity within several occupied social roles The effects of labelling Primary and secondary socialisation and agencies involved in such Social citizenship	Morality around diversity and acceptance Links to social policy aimed at preventing discrimination Value development	Secularisation debate and the effects of such in relation to loss of spirituality and alternative means of achieving such	Globalisation in relation to diversity, identity, norms and values

Faculty: Psychology and Sociology	British Values	Social	Moral	Spiritual	Cultural
Year 12	BPS (British psychological society) developed to ensure adherence to standards around ethics and protection of participants and to support the reputation of research into human behaviour Tolerance of varying types of families and cultural diversity linked in with social constructionism	Social psychology - obedience, conformity, independent behaviour and the consequences in relation to creating social change in society Social integration and social consequences of topics covered i.e. Memory and the validity of eye witness testimony - false memories, the innocence project, wrongful convictions Community lives - globalisation and variation of family living styles Peer group interactions and the development of identity within several occupied social roles The effects of labelling	Ethical issues in relation to research i.e. deception, protection from physical and psychological harm, debriefing etc. Morality of generalizability of study or theory findings Morality around diversity and acceptance Links to social policy aimed at preventing discrimination	Personality testing Attachment unit - the need for love and security in the developmental process	Social constructionism and variation globally in human behaviour and patterns in relation to conformity, obedience, attachment, assessment and diagnosis of psychopathologies such as Schizophrenia Ethnocentrism / imposed etics in research and theory development Globalisation in relation to diversity, identity, norms and values

Year 13	Legal defence for sleep disorders such as sleep walking/parasomnias Legalities of relationships - types of marriages and prohibited relationship practices such as forced marriage, marital rape etc Individual liberty surrounding relationships choices i.e. relationships models and selection of mate and reproduction desires Free will and how this is exerted in topics covered - sleep, relationships, eating behaviour, psychopathology and media psychology Crime and deviance unit - the importance of the law making process in terms of socialisation, social control and justice	Social integration relationships - parental, peer group etc Interpretivism and Positivism in research	Ethical issues in relation to research i.e. deception, protection from physical and psychological harm, debriefing etc. Cost reward benefit to human lives and bio-medical model Morality of generalizability of study or theory findings Morality surrounding beliefs in society and the need for religious pluralism and acceptance Religion as a source of social stability vs. social conflict debate	The development of new religious and new age movements centred on spirituality and self enhancement Secularisation debate and the effects of such in relation to loss of spirituality and alternative means of achieving such Reflection on own spiritual and religious orientation Influences of and origins of fundamentalism	Cultural variations in expectations of romance and love in relationships units - love vs. arranged marriages Eating behaviour and the influence of cultural diets in our interpretation of eating and disorders of eating Individualism and Collectivism in cultural interactions Social constructionism of deviance and criminality - impact of globalisation on crime such as human, organ and sex trafficking as well as green crime and its effects on the environment
---	---	---	---	---	--